PRESENT: Tracey Smithers, Nicole Nolan, Ann Hammond, Pauline Barnfield, Moya Cooke, Christine Finlay, Caroline Emery, Brenda Pullen, Julie Cunnah and Trish Biggs

NO APOLOGIES

1. Agreed minutes of last meeting – no matters arising.
2. From the previous meeting it was agreed that Trish Biggs would vote at the AGM – however this was missed from the minutes.
3. The ongoing Children Centre – Ann has cancelled the last two meetings because no real developments have been made. However a Children's Centre is due to be scheduled in to Hampshire's plan. Ann has met with Martyn Rhea from TPS who is currently looking at ways of developing his extended school programme, so they are to liase as they have a common agenda.
4. Speaker was Caroline Emery from Zero 11 project – who spoke for about 20 minutes and accepted questions afterwards.
5. Information Exchange : Tracy from the County Youth Service spoke about her new parents group which offers support, education advice and emotional support for young parents. They are currently trying to establish the wants and needs of the group. Summer activities have been planned. Christine from Portage explained that the Portage plus scheme had been extended and that they were continually busy. Pauline said that the Inbetween Club was full up and she was possibly considering a Breakfast Club. Brenda from the Library said that her baby rhyme time was extremely popular. Trish from Homestart explained that Homestart was viable for another year. They currently have 25 to 26 families with each volunteer looking after two families.
